LOCAL MATTERS.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:00 and sets at 6:15. High water at 7:09 a. m. and 7:34 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair and continued warm tonight, and Thursday; light variable winds.

THE ORUOIFIXION.

Every seat in St. Paul's Church was taken last evening to hear the choir render Stainer's "Oruofixion" and those present went away more than pleased. The burden of the work fell on Mr. Ker-neth Ogden, tenor, and Mr. J. Harris Franklin, bass, who were both in good voice and sang more effectively, their voices blending beautifully especially in the duet "So Thou Lifest Thy Divine Petition," and in the quartet "God So Loved The World," with Mrs. Elizabeth De Dier and Mrs. Sherman B. Fowler which was one of the gems of the evening. The minor parts were well sung by Mr. Wilbur Madden and Mr. Wilmer Waller. Contributing not the least to the success of the evening was the violin work of Miss Caroline East. Her solo at the offertory was played with great depth and strength of tone, and showed she possesses fine talent. The chorus work, especially of the men, was up to the standard set by the choir, especially the "Fling Wide The Gates," and the difficult "Oruofixion" choruses, which were given with precision of attack and great volume, and showed careful training on the part of the organist and director, Mr. Sherman B. Fowler, and Mr. Frank Field, assistant director. Several well known Washington singers came over and sang with the chorus at this service.

CONFERENCE.

Rev. M. D. Mitchell, of St. John's Episcopal Church, Baltimore, last night delivered the sermon which opened the sessions of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, at the Mount Vernon Place Church, in Washington. The business sessions began this morning.

Bishop A. W. Wilson, of Baltimore, and Bishop E. E. Hoss, of Nashville, Tenn., are presiding. The important business of the conference includes the election of five clergymen and a like number of laymen as delegates to the General Conference, which will be held in Asheville, N. C., next May.

Rev. C. D. Bulla, of the M. E. Church, this city and several representatives from that church are in attendance.

THE FISHING SEASON.

Fishboats are almost ready for the spring business. The platforms are being completed and the houses have been opened for fishing. No fish, however, have arrived so far. Shad are being caught as high up the river as the Washington and a number have been taken to the vicinity of Liverpool Point. They were carried to Washington on a vessel yesterday. Should the mild spring weather continue a few days longer the Alexandria fishermen.

WEDDING.

Mr. Henry Zimmerman, formerly of this city, but now of Washington, and Miss Goldie Reynolds, of Rosely, Alexandria county, were married last night at the parsonage of Christ Church by Rev. W. J. Morton. The bride was attended by Miss Julia Kohler, of Washington, and the groom had for his best man Mr. Neale McFarland, of Washington. A reception was subsequently held by Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman in Washington where they will reside in future.

SEMINOLE TRIBE.

Seminole Tribe of Red Men met last night. The chief's degree was conferred on one candidate and others are waiting to take degrees. Several applications for membership were received last night. As has been stated, the second annual banquet of the tribe will be given on April 5.

LEFT HIS BOX.

A man, who said he is a machinist, went to the Brecknock House a few nights ago for lodging and was refused accommodation for the reason that he had not the necessary wherewithal to pay for his entertainment. He left a box with the proprietor and failing to return the same was opened. It contained a brick, a cobblestone and a small piece of a mat—only these and nothing more.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Frank Merryman, charged with non-support of his wife was dismissed.

Harry Davis, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was dismissed.

THE TOWN CLOCK.

In answer to the many queries, "When will the hands on the four sides of the clock in the City Hall (steple be painted alike?" it can be stated that as soon as the painting of the steple shall have been completed the hands and dial on the east, west and south sides will be made to conform to that on the north.

Y. M. S. L. DEFEATED.

The Lyceum basketball played went to Washington last night and played a game with the Carroll Institute team of that city, and although they made a plucky fight throughout the game they met their first defeat of the season by a score of 35 to 6.

A PAGE FROM MOTHER GOOSE.

Hot cross buns day is again drawing near, and next Friday these eatables will be again in season. In the nursery rhymes handed down from old England the picture of the hawk and leonard individual ringing a bell and crying "Hot cross buns" attracts the attention of the infantile generation. The man with the bell will not make his rounds in Alexandria, as he formerly did in London, but Mr. H. Bloch will be able to supply the demand at his bakery, 615 King street.

PYTHIAN BANQUET.

Almost the entire membership of Oriental Lodge, Knights of Pythias, assembled in their castle hall last night on north E. street to welcome the members of Ascalon Temple, Dramatic Order Knights of Koroson, who came from Washington to pay a fraternal visit to Oriental Lodge. The visitors arrived in Alexandria about 8 o'clock, and were met by Past Officers A. A. and Friedlander and escorted to the lodge room. In the company were many distinguished members of the Pythian order, among whom were Supreme Representative Major Thomas A. Bynum, Past Grand Chancellor A. E. Kahler and A. J. David, secretary of Ascalon Temple.

At the close of the convention the visitors were escorted by Oriental Lodge to the Opera House Cafe, where a banquet had been arranged by the committee in charge of the visitation. After the wants of the inner man had been satisfied, Deputy Grand Chancellor Ernest R. Byer, toastmaster for the occasion, stepped for order, and on behalf of Oriental Lodge, welcomed the visitors. The toastmaster then announced the first toast of the evening, "The Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias," and called upon Supreme Representative Taomasa A. Bynum, who responded in a happy instructive and pleasing manner. "The Mother Domain, Washington, D. C.," was responded to by Past Grand Chancellor A. E. Kahler; "Friendship, the Corner-stone of our Order," was responded to by Sir Knight State Legislator Robinson Moncure. Mr. Moncure was in his happiest mood and his remarks were highly appreciated. To the toast, "The D. O. K. K.," Past Chancellor J. Oliver responded. Major J. T. Herbert responded to "Pythianism in Alexandria," and at the conclusion of this toast, all were convinced that the order here was in a prosperous healthy condition, and on the increase. With a few closing remarks from the toastmaster the party adjourned about 11 o'clock, and the visitors departed for their homes delighted with the reception at the hands of this old Virginia lodge.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Eliza Hamersley, widow of James F. Hamersley, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Cox, on Cameron street, at 1:45 o'clock this morning. The deceased was 78 years old. She was a native of Fairfax county, having been born near Franconia, but had resided in Alexandria since early womanhood. Mrs. Hamersley leaves four children: Messrs John R., William E. and A. Sidney Hamersley, and Mrs. Cox. Miss Bessie Ramey, who lived at No. 112 south Henry street, died at Providence Hospital, Washington on Monday. The funeral service was held at the residence of Mr. Edward Green, No. 524 7th street N. E. Washington, and the remains forwarded to Front Royal for interment today. [According to the information furnished the Gazette, an item appeared yesterday announcing the death of Miss Lucie Ellensworth in Washington on Monday. This was erroneous, as the above will show.]

Lullie Dugan, daughter of the late Leonard Dugan, and wife of W. B. Dugan, died at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Dugan, this morning. She leaves a husband and six children, one five days old.

CONFERENCE OF TEACHERS.

The meeting of the conference of teachers of the eighth congressional district will open tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Young People's Building on south Washington street.

President Birchhead, who will preside, has arranged an elaborate and interesting programme for the different meetings. Some of the most prominent educators of the state will deliver addresses. Music will be furnished by local talent. This meeting is for the general public as well as the teachers.

On Friday morning between 9 and 10 a. m. in the Lee School Building the following Alexandria schools will give exhibitions of the practical teaching of their respective classes: Kindergarten, Mrs. Barrett; first grade, Miss Davis, and second and third grades, Miss King.

The Alexandria teachers are working hard to make this a successful meeting and cordially invite the public to be present at the various exercises.

INJURED BY AN EXPLOSION.

Mr. Harry Altheison narrowly escaped serious injury at his country home, near Mount Vernon, yesterday. He was spraying trees with hose when the stream suddenly ceased to flow. While attempting to clear the nozzle there was a sudden explosion and Mr. Altheison was struck in the face with the full force of a seventy-five pound pressure. His eye glasses were demolished and the right side of his face painfully injured.

QUIT WORK.

The contractors doing the extensive building work at Fort Washington had one Washington and five Alexandria carpenters employed thereon. One non-union man was also employed there when this morning the others requested the contractor to discharge this man. The contractor declined to comply with the request, whereupon the others quit work.

Johnson Remanded to the Custody of a Sheriff.

New York, March 23.—Jack Johnson was remanded to the custody of the sheriff today in default of $5,000 bail and will be subject to a call for trial from any part of the country as soon as Norman Pinder, complaining witness against him in the pending assault case, is found. The big negro also faces the possibility of a charge of spiriting the complainant and other witnesses out of the jurisdiction of the court. The grand jury will be requested to take up this jury will be the case immediately and evidence to that effect obtained by the prosecution servers will be placed in the jury's hands.

Johnson and his attorney, James Nugent, pleaded excitedly before Judge Mulgrew, but failed to move him from his decision, the only added statements from the court being that "this court cannot be trifled with," and a refusal to allow Johnson to be paroled in the custody of counsel. The big negro's smile was missing and he hesitated for a moment when an officer showed him to a seat inside the prisoner's rail.

Process servers had been bustling for the complainant, Norman Pinder, since Sunday and reported this morning that neither he nor the other witnesses could be found. When the case was called Johnson sat with a crowd of friends smiling broadly. The papers were handed to Judge Mulgrew who studied them a moment and then announced his decision, denying the motion of Johnson's counsel to dismiss the case.

Coal Breakers Destroyed by Fire. Wilkes Barre, Pa., March 23.—One of the largest breakers in the anthracite coal region was destroyed by fire early this morning when the mineral spring structure, owned and operated by the Lehigh Valley Coal Company, was turned to the ground. The immediate loss is about $250,000. Over a thousand men and boys are thrown out of work.

The new freight depot for the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, in Fredericksburg, has been completed, but will not be occupied before May. Work is now in progress on the new passenger depot in that city.

John Gibson, 80 years old, an oyster man, living alone on Mockborn Island near Cape Charles, for the last three years, was shot and instantly killed by Joseph Evans, a watchman for private oyster grounds, in Northampton county, yesterday. The aged man had been gathering clams for himself, when it was prepared a meal for Evans, and when he refused to comply, Evans fired both barrels of his shotgun into the man's body.

Dr. Herwin U. Roop, president of Eastern College, Massachus, received a gift yesterday from Mrs. Voorhes, of New Jersey, a check for $30,000 for a girls' dormitory, to be known as "Voorhes Hall," to be completed by the opening of the fall term, September 28 next. The building is to be four stories and 130 feet long and 48 feet wide. This structure will be a companion building to the young men's dormitory.

To Have Thirty Million Soldiers. Berlin, March 23.—That China will adopt a compulsory military service now in vogue in Germany and become numerically the greatest fighting power in the world, as foretold by Prof. Theodore Schiemann, Germany's foremost student of Chinese affairs, was confirmed today by Yin Tchang, the Chinese Minister to Berlin. Yin is soon to return to China to become Minister of War. Yin Tchang says recent events have shown that China's integrity can only be maintained by China herself; that it is idle to depend longer on the fair dealing of other nations. "We propose to make China able to fight her own battles and to command respect, rather than beg for it," he said today.

It is reported today that Congressman Mand, who represents the Fifth Maryland district, will resign.
